Narrative: Female resident of Sweet Brook, refusing to give her name or names of people involved, requests to speak to officer regarding an incident that happened last Saturday.
Narrative: Officer Hernandez spoke with female party (RP) who refused to give her name. RP asked what would happen if she called the police if she was assaulted and wanted to see an officer and file a report. She was advised one would be dispatched to speak with her. RP stated that she wanted to speak with a supervisor about the incident on Saturday in which no officer responded to a female who was assaulted and she heard the whole incident, in which a staff member told the female not to call the police. RP kept going back and forth about both issues and stated she was concerned for her safety because no police would respond and she would not

Narrative:

State 911 reports a male party called looking to speak to Williamstown Police but would not give his name. Dispatch called male party who states he is located at above address and is waiting for his mother. Male party will not answer any questions asked by dispatch and appears very agitated. 2105- [REDACTED] at station stating she received a call from her son, [REDACTED], who was located at above address and looking for a ride. [REDACTED] states she went to [REDACTED] location but could not find him and left. 2106- Unit 31 Transporting [REDACTED] to Williamstown Police Department. 2116- At Williamstown Police Department.

[REDACTED] had ridden his scooter from his home to Cricket Creek Farm. [REDACTED] used to work at the farm and was visiting with the [REDACTED]. It got late and he wanted a ride home and called his mother for a ride. Apparently she drove there but couldn't find him. Mahar was very calm and didn't say or act in anyway that would warrant a section 12. He was transported to the station where his mother picked him up.
