TTY test call

Abandoned 911 call, upon call back party stated her husband accidentally hit the emergency button on the phone. No emergency responses is needed.

CP reports she has trash all over her yard from her neighbors trash can, CP states that it possibly could have been from an animal but thinks her neighbor dumped it in her yard due to the trash only being in her yard and not anyone else. CP reports there has been an ongoing issue with this neighbor.

Does appear it was an animal, neighbor was advised and asked to pick it up. She was unaware it had happened and she will pick it up. Both party ok with it.

WCSS reports they are experiencing IT problems and have no internet, phone lines, or camera systems. If we receive a call regarding someone trying to contact WCSS have them call the TIP LINE #413-822-8929. WCSS will call back when the problem is resolved.

WCSS reports they are back up and running.

CP looking to speak to Ofc Sacco about some missing plants.

Narrative:
Attempted call back. No voicemail set up.
Sacco spoke with Dave Wiles who stated that the flowers were an un-maintained flower bed that the Housing Authority allows, but if unkempt, they remove same. Wiles stated that it was 5-6 weeks after she moved to her new apartment that his crew began dismantling the flower bed as technically, it was not supposed to be there. Several residents approached him asking if they could have the plants as he was discarding same. Wiles agreed and allowed them to take the plants. Wiles stated that 1-2 weeks after the removal of the plants, she became angry about the situation. Not a police matter, this should be taken up with the Housing Authority.

Narrative:
Spoke with Grace who stated management sent her an email agreeing to help move her flowers to her new apartment. Her plants are all gone now and believed to be at different apartments throughout the property. Grace stated that David from maintenance gave residence permission to take what they wanted. She claims management has done nothing to protect her or her property. I will attempt to make contact with David on monday to get his side of the story.

Narrative:

Party, very indignant because WFD did not answer their business line, complained about neighbor (2 houses from hers) burning some type of debris. CP was advised of WFD not being a full time dept, therefore not always manned. She was also advised it was a FW issue and he would be sent out to investigate it. Party refused to give name, address, phone# (info gathered from 911 and inhouse screens).

1512 hrs. CP called back stating she was going to call Craig Pedercini to complain about the fire again. She was advised the FW was on the scene. Again it was explained to her that it is a FW issue, not WFD.

Narrative:

FW reports people sitting around campfire. They agreed to put it out because of the direction of the wind (blowing smoke into neighbor's yard).
