Narrative:
RP reports that there is an ongoing property dispute over a part of the land that is between the two residences and that there is a garden he and his wife maintain that is being claimed by the neighbor to be on his property. Sometime between Saturday and this report, the garden was trashed and plants destroyed. RP advised this was a civil matter and that it would be documented.

Narrative:
On callback, the party became very irate that it was not a property dispute but that the lawsuit had not been concluded. He states that rocks have been thrown at his house and various plants destroyed.

Narrative:
Both parties advised of civil issue. They are both working with attorneys. Both allege trespassing and littering. Not a police matter.

RP states Ralph Maddry is trying to get into her apartment. Pushed her with the door, and won't leave.

Spoke with both parties concerning the complaint. Mr. Maddry insists that Hart has some sort of sound machine that is inside the walls to keep him awake at night. This is an on going issue that has been brought in front of the courts and also through the housing authority. Parties advised to call the PD instead of having face to face confrontations. Peace restored at this time.

Narrative:

Party, refusing to give her address, stopped in requesting information on what she can do regarding a domestic situation where she is not being allowed back into her home.

Narrative:

Party spoke with Sgt. and was advised of her options. Will be staying in a motel tonight.

RP said she had a verbal argument with her boyfriend during the day today and into this evening. The male party and owner of home told her to leave and to get her belongings tomorrow. She asked about a woman's shelter and was also given information from the Elizabeth Freeman Center. S-4

Party called to report that he mailed a computer hardrive through UPS and that the tracking information states it never left the store. The party at the williamstown location was not "cooperating with him". Party was advised to start with a complaint or claim through the UPS corporation, as it is a civil matter until UPS states otherwise. Party was upset that "some people call and the cops come right out, but not for him" then hung up.
