

Narrative:

Threats made to hockey coach from a student that lives off-campus and has some mental health issues.

Narrative:

Spoke to roommates at 11-13 Meadow St, stated he was there but passed out do to being intoxicated. They stated he got kicked off the Hockey team about two yrs ago. They were sober, stated they will watch him for the night, have a chat in the am about what he did. Jacob Pelton sent a text rambling words that didn't make sense that concerned the coach in which contacted WCSS. Nothing needed at this time, they were advised if this continues what could happen. WCSS stated the incident happened about an hr or more prior to WPD getting the call.

Narrative:

Ofc. Jennings contacted Beth Westcott while I was enroute. Westcott stated she could see her son and three friends playing football on Mill Street. I met with Westcott and the four juveniles who admitted they were by the mill and were curious to see what it looked like inside; however, they were unable to enter the property. All youths advised of the dangers the property presents and to refrain from trying to enter again. All children were extremely cooperative and agreed to not enter again.
