Narrative: Reports the dogs at above address have been barking for over two hours. Believes the owners are home (cars in the yard). States this is an ongoing problem and has been for several years. Has tried to talk civilly to owners to no avail. Also concerned for the dogs' welfare as they are always crated outside.

Upon arrival the dogs were in the fenced in area behind the home and were barking. [REDACTED] stated she would bring the dogs inside. She was also advised about the town by laws. [REDACTED] said she keeps the dogs inside the home during the day while at work. S-4

Narrative: Party put something that was smoking in the bathroom trash then left. RP inhales some of the smoke and is concerned.

Narrative: Upon arrival did observe a slight odor of something that may have been burning, very light smoke coming from the top of the trash can. The trash bag was taken out and nothing appeared to be burning inside the bag. After a few minutes the smoke, odor dissipated. Unknown at this time what may have caused the issue.
