Call Taker: DISPATCHER CHRISTINE LEMOINE
Location/Address: NORTH HOOSAC RD
Narrative:

Party reports that he has returned from a trip for 8 monthes and has noticed some items missing from his residence. First is a painting (abstract of NYC worth $1200), second is a box of old coins. No other items noticed missing, include additional high value items in plain sight. Party reports that his 3 kids were watching the house at least once a week during the time (last week of October until today) but does not seem to suspect them. No signs of damage or entry beyond the people authorized.

Narrative:

CP called back to report he has located the items. The picture had fallen behind a couch and the coins (he had forgotten) he had moved to a strong box.

RP states that on Sunday, 6/14, she was using the female restroom when the owner, Mike Deep walked in. She announced that she was in there and he apologized and walked back out.

RP stating that she went into the store to buy cigarettes and the lady in front of her received 2 white pills from the male party behind the counter.

CP stated that she was told to step back until he was done assisting the lady in front of her. RP said that the male party turned around and shut his camera off behind him.

After he gave the female party who had reddish lite colored hair, jean shorts & a small top green top on, with sandles.

After the lady in front of CP got the two items and left.

CP forgot to press #4 before 911. All is good at location.

CP reporting that there is a cat that's been hanging around the baseball field. Cat is tri colored, gry/blk/whi

CP was advised we haven't received any calls for a lost cat as of yet. CP stated that if someone catches it that a person will hold onto it. CP was advised to have who ever catches it to give me a contact number in case of a owner is looking it.

Narrative:

Crisis called to report that the party has made threats against himself in a vague manner following Turning point denying him medication due to him driving to get it without a valid license. Crisis is requesting a well being check, not enough for a section 12 at this time based on their conversation, but a concern for his safety.

Narrative:

I spoke with Lafleur via telephone, who reported Turning Point employee, Angela Guzzi, is refusing to give him his pain medication, because he will not turn over his car keys to her. Lafleur states that Guzzi is upset because he admitted to her that he drove his vehicle from his home to the mailboxes in Pines Lodge. Lafleur was advised of his options and decided, at this time, to not pursue the matter until he can speak with a Brien Center supervisor tomorrow. While speaking with Lefleur, he was calm and cooperative and indicated he has no suicidal ideations. Lefleur was also advised not to drive a motor vehicle.
